

Beijing Women to Watch Nominations 2016

In our experience living and working in Beijing, we have encountered countless women who are unquestionably making their mark with powerful work and meaningful initiatives across the city. We are calling for nominations of individuals who identify as women that are movers and shakers to assemble a list of Beijing's Women to Watch in 2016. We will produce profiles of these women in order to inspire all Beijingers to celebrate diversity, to work toward equality, and to continue making an impact on the city that we all share.

Nominations can be made via this survey (QR code on the left) and will close February 8th, 2016. We welcome nominations from all, with the aim of profiling women across all ages, nationalities, and life experiences. Nominations will be considered by the Beijing Women to Watch 2016 Committee. Select candidates will be interviewed and announced at the Women to Watch Gala in March 2016.

Sincerely,

Beijing Women to Watch 2016 Organizing Committee
