About Us:

RIKAI Labs is one of Shanghai's top tech startups. Backed by ChinAccelerator and 500 startups, we build chatbots for WeChat. We've built bots for companies like VISA and Metlife, startups like 247 tickets, and we also provide our own "TeacherBot" wechat account to learn english with an AI teacher.

About you:

If you're familiar with node.js, Mogodb/mysql, and want to apply some of those patterns to chatbot development, you've come to the right place! Your role will be extending our in-house Chabot framework, adding new components that are used by the authoring team. We use both English and Chinese.

You'll be working directly with the CTO and our content team to create an internal framework that we can use for developing multiple mini programs. This will also talk to our server-side tools for natural language processing, analytics, and business logic.

RIKAI Labs has a deep technology stack so there's lots of opportunity to learn new things here!

1. 1~3 yr Node.js dev expirences
2. Familiar with Restful API;
3. Familiar with Mogodb/mysql
4. Experienced with async or Promise
5. Interested in cutting edge tech in AI, Chatbot, NLP and ML
