China Schools Awards

The China Schools Awards (CSA) celebrates the best of international-oriented K12 education in China.

Organised by the British Chamber of Commerce in China, in partnership with the British Chamber of Commerce Southwest China and the British Chamber of Commerce Guangdong, the CSA rotates annually between the cities of Beijing, Chengdu and Guangzhou.

The awards include months of promotion and applications, a prestigious gala dinner and a day of activities to connect, empower, inform and learn from/listen to school leaders from across the country.

This year, the launch event of the CSA was held in Beijing on 17th June, and the Awards Gala Dinner will be held in Chengdu on 24th February at the Niccolo.

Programme

Connect. Empower. Inform.

With events organised across Thursday and Friday, covering a diverse range of topics including, holistic education in the era of digitalisation, accelerating sustainability in schools, staff confidence and wellbeing, and leading trends in the K12 education market in China, there ought to be enough value and insight for all educators in the room.
